

Smashing Pumpkins, An ode to no one

I'm never coming back
I'm never giving in
I'll never be the shine in your spit
I disconnect the act
I disconnect the dots
I disconnect the me in me
And you're mistaken
It's you that's faking
Living and breathing and dying too
This message is for anyone who dares to hear a fool
You can't bring me back
You can't bring me back
Cause I gave it all back to you
Thru sacred alleys the living wrecks
Wreak their havoc upon this world
The disenchanted
The romantics
The body and face and soul of you is gone down that deep black hole
Destroy the mind
Destroy the body
But you cannot destroy the heart
Destroy the mind
Destroy the body
But you cannot destroy the heart
And you
You make me so I need to disconnect
And you make it so real
I don't need your love to disconnect
To runaround kids in get-go cars
With vaseline afterbirths and neon coughs
Galaxies full of nobodies
Giving us the farewell runarounds
I took a virgin mary axe to his sweet baby jane
Lost my innocence to a no good girl
Scratch my face with anvil hands
And coil my tongue around a bumblebee mouth
And I give it all back to you
I give it all back to you
I give it all back to you
For you
No way
I don't need it
I don't need your love to disconnect
And you make it so real
I don't need your love to disconnect
No way
No way
No way to disconnect
And you make it so real
I don't need your love to disconnect
No way
No way
No way to disconnect
