

Smashing Pumpkins, Because You Are

Because you are

I've got the tremor to stay
Because you are
I scar the stranger, betrayed
All of my senses ashamed
I will deny all that i am afraid
Lies will disguise
Rules of time and endgames

Because you are

I chew the rust off my face
Because you are
I wipe the stain off my haze
Because you are
I am released, born of age
Because you are
I stare inside empty faith

I will deny all that I am afraid
Lies will disguise
Rules of time and endgames
Because you are

Because you are
Because you are
By choosing...
Because you are
Because you are
Rinse the scars off my skin
Because you are
I touch the scars of your skin
Because you are
I let the travel begin
Because you are
I let the travel begin
Because you are
I let the travel begin
