

Smashing Pumpkins, Blew Away

Blew, blew away
But I don't wanna fade
Blew, blew
And if you love her
You know it will come true
And if you need her
You know that she'll be there
Stay awake, I lie here
With her and I fall
And when I wake inside you
I know you know I'm yours
Blew, blew away
But I don't wanna fade
Blew, blew
And if you're sad, too
Until the angel sings and touches you
Don't confuse my only life
I said blew, and please don't ever leave
And I will grieve, and remember thee
Hope to meet you there
And I wanna let her know
That I won't let her go
I wanna let her know
That I love her so
I'm blew, blew, blew away
But I don't wanna -
Blew, I love you
Blew
