Smashing Pumpkins, Blew Away

Blew, blew away But I don't wanna fade Blew, blew And if you love her You know it will come true And if you need her You know that she'll be there Stay awake, I lie here With her and I fall And when I wake inside you I know you know I'm yours Blew, blew away But I don't wanna fade Blew, blew And if you're sad, too Until the angel sings and touches you Don't confuse my only life I said blew, and please don't ever leave And I will grieve, and remember thee Hope to meet you there And I wanna let her know That I won't let her go I wanna let her know That I love her so I'm blew, blew, blew away But I don't wanna -Blew, I love you Blew
