

Smaxone, Dead But Alive

Houses burning
The world is turning
I am caught in the crossfire
Nowhere to run
Blinding flashbacks
From the sky
I can't see if
It's me that just go blind
Mind is glowing Overflowing
Anything that will ever
Make my life seem sane
Break my fingers
Seems it lingers
Into the burning sun
It makes my skin seem pale

I won't give into the
Lies they will try to sell me

Bombings on your house
You're confused and
You try to hide
Guarding your babychild
Try to get out
Not dead but alive

As I wake up
Only breakup
Of my world which
Is lying on the ground
No tomorrow, pain and sorrow

Need to borrow
A piece of mind
To keep me sane
I will go down
Just to stay down
I will fight for
The pieces that
Is left in me
Say forgiveness
Mixed with illness
I will burn these memories
Or they'll burn me

Bombings on your house
You're confused and
You try to hide
Guarding your babychild
Try to get out
Not dead but alive

Fuck that cause I'm alive....

Bombings on your house
You're confused and
You try to hide
Guarding your babychild
Try to get out
Not dead but alive

Dead or alive....

Try to get out
Not dead but alive....
