

Smaxone, Freedom 2003

Ohh no
Dead end again
Can't see through the light
Of the shade I'm in
Whispering, out my name
Softness will never
Be the same again

All we want to do
Is getting through now
All we ever knew
Is stuck on you now

Soulsun
Beauty defined
Is this real or
Thoughts of my
Outraged mind
Swiftly, through the day
Finally a reason
For me to stay

What would I do
To make it true
Would I lie?
What would it prove?
There won't be another you
So give in and listen

All we see is true
Just you and me now
All we ever knew
Is stuck on you now

All we want to do
Is getting through now
All we ever knew
Is stuck on you now

This time
Give it in now
I don't know what you want
But I will find out
I know when heart's
Beat up and broken
You don't have to lie
I know you must be chokin'
This time....
This time....

All we see is true
Just you and me now
All we ever knew
Is stuck on you now

All we wanna do....
All we wanna do....
All we wanna do....
