

Smif-n-wessun, Wrekonize (Vocal Remix)

[When the sun comes shining]

Early to rise, so wake wake before day break
Meditating on the steps I take
I realize there's a lot at stake
So why enterprise while trying to stack papes
But I wrekonize that it aint' easy
So I organize with my P.N.C.
From day break to dusk dawn
I stand strong on my own too
Give praises to jive before manuvering thru
My steps towards improvements
Meet up with my esset, put him on the movements
I maintains like green bag and such
We're gonna make it happpen, just the two of us

[Refrain: x4]

All heads realize, wrekonize
Real heads on the rise, wrekonize
Better wrekonize

I live the life of an entertainer
Stress bringer, grams of get right high pounds of anger
And worries of success down the line
Living life to the fullest in that space and time
I'm coping wit me and my habits
Coping that coke over and and the cabbage
Tensed all seasons for ass kicing reasons
Never know where you catch a spot committing treason
I know what you mean son
I've seen some blind, some deaf, some dumb
Whichever one choose to follow the other one
Looses to the mass confusion caused by fast illusion
Showin 'n provin, it's not just a phrase that we usin'
It's the way of life when you keep it moving
Soon and, you get new then
You be tuned in to get ready to move in position

[Refrain]

I shine, you shine, in this day and time
We maintain the same frame of mind
The elevation, spark it up son
Yo, start the circulation
360 degrees in rotation
Simulatin, as a herb as my physical creation
Slipping to a hallucination
Situations
Got me thinking about my life seriously
Keep it real continuously
Before I slip into blackness I prepare for combat
Protect my dome cause that's where my home's at Crack my windows and hail is the misflow
Build up my mental, construct on my physical
Spreading love to my P.N.C. state to state
And head on lock holding it down behind the gate
What's subscribe in the mail son
Or hit me on the horn
Smif N' Wessun hold it on
We see you when you reach home

[Refrain]
