

Smile Empty Soul, Live Forever

Try hard but it's never enough
And I'm all out of energy
And I'm tired of fucking up
Hide scars and pretend that I'm tuff
When I know on the inside
Life is calling my bluff

[Chorus]

The world will knock you down
The world will take you out
Theres not wone mother fucker in this world
Thats gunna live forever
Gunna live forever

[Chorus]

So sure that you've got it all down
So strong and confident
Your're the king of this town
Then life sends a shattering blow
Now you've lost everything
Theres no place to go

[Chorus x2]

I hold these scars in remembrance
Loss of blood for my erogance
Hold out my hands for deliverance
