

Smiley Kids, Always O.K.

Sometimes in life you get let down.
Your shiny smile begins to frown.
Problems strike, ya one by one.
Or sometimes they come all at once.
But, things they always work out well.
Like that kid who tripped and fell
Right after that he got right up,
'cause what goes down must come up!

Sometimes life can get rough.
But everything will be OK
Just pray real hard and tough it out.
Ya everything will be OK
