

Smiley Kids, Army Of Light

We're saved by grace, imperfect human race.
Not saved by works, lest anyone boast
But faith without works, is basically dead.
So let the light shine, don't be afraid to fall

Put on the armor of God, there's a battle to be won.
Shield of faith, sword of the spirit,
Helmet of salvation, breastplate of righteousness,
hearts of peace and love

We're soldiers of the light.
Preparing for the fight
We're soldiers of the light.
We've already won the fight
