

Smiley Kids, Imitation Cross

You pray the rosarie, hail mary, pray to angels saints and popes.
All part of your religion, the place that you set your hopes Just keep in mind that it was Jesus Christ who died for us
Not your priest and not the Pope

The Son is the only way to the Father.
Religion is man made, why bother
With the legalistic man made doctines.
Nothing can replace Christ on the cross

Jesus is the only way there is no other way to the Father Quit trying to imitate the cross, we're always trying to imitate the cross Religion can't replace the cross, good works can't replace the cross Without Him we are unclean, without Him our faith would be dead He died and rose again, there's no imiation of God's power

You've never even read the Bible, it's improtant that we know who Jesus is If we're gonna cal ourselves Christian, we've got to know what it really means
