

Smith Kendra, Space Unadorned

Where do I begin and end in space
She wondered as she flew into the night
And heard it calling her name
In the country, A. was with her then
Once again she heard a silent voice
Telling her to stop you're going too far
Turn back
Nonetheless she left no conscious fear
Breathing soft to God as in the instant of release
Under the wide and starry sky
Dig me a grave and let me lie
Glad do I live and gladly do I die
Where do I begin and end in space
When you've seen her face you can believe in Natural Law Hid in every space she'll tell you why the sky is blue
If you can read between the lines
You know the wheel is already in motion
Where do I begin and end in space
