

Smith/Kotzen, Scars

Sometimes i feel like a helpless child
Alone in the night
Sometimes i feel so far from the light

I am alone on
And endless road
Looking for a sign
The crossroad
Stretches out head
But i don't know which way is mine

So i am gonna run
Form the world
Cause i don't owe you
So don't be afraid
I won't get too close to you
I am a just a loner
