

Smog, Wine Stained Lips

Well I woke up this mornin'
Thinking about the conversation we had last night
All the stupid things I said
Through wine stained lips

Well I woke up this mornin'
Thinking about the conversation we had last night
All the stupid things I said
Through wine stained lips

I don't know why I wanted to tell you everything
Why is it so tempting for me to boast?
I don't know why I wanted to tell a stranger everything
Why is it so easy for me to boast?
I turned it into a joke
But I still boast

Some people shouldn't go to parties
Some people shouldn't drink wine at parties
Some people shouldnt've woken up this morning
