

Smoke Or Fire, Running In Circles

You smile at me,
And I wish every day could be this good,
Every day could be like this.
You're gonna stay,
And I'm feeling like myself again,
Whatever that is. Maryland.
Lost a gem.
But I wanted you all for myself,
I know it sounds selfish, but in the end
You're going to win.
The stars were wrong cause
Every time you go away I mess it up.
Well it's not my fault,
And it's not your fault.
It's not the way I've always been.
And I've been let down,
And you've been let down.
That's not the way this has to be.
The clouds all pass, we're moving fast.
I welcome any weather change I get.
The stars were wrong,
I'll always miss you.
When it's all over we'll see we had it good.
When it's all over we'll say we had it good.
What a backwards way of saying what we mean.
What a backwards way of saying what we mean.
