

Smokey, Don't Play Your Rock'n'roll T0 Me

Don't play your rock'n'roll to me
That ain't the way it's meant to be
I ain't so blind that I can't see Just let it lie and let it be
Don't play your rock'n'roll
no
Don't play your rock'n'roll
no
Don't play your rock'n'roll to me.

I know you think I'm crazy to keep hangin' round
But I was sort of hopin' you'd change from the girl I found
But your words just sound like rock'n'roll lines to me
They're just abOut as burnt out as a worn out forty-five
And you can't expect them to keep our love alive.

Don't play your rock'n'roll to me

I guess you had me fooled fo a while
With your come on looks and your Mona Lisa smile
But your rock'n'roll is gettin' out of time for me
Go sing your lines to someone else
'cos someone else may be
The fool you always thought you saw in me.
