

Smokie Norful, I Know Too Much About Him

Verse 1:

You cant tell me that the stars wont come out at night,
no, you cant tell me that the sun will refuse to shine.
Theres nothing you can say or do
that will destroy my peace of mind,
Ive tried God for myself and Hes with me everytime.

You cant tell me that the doctors have the final say, no, you cant tell me that the Lord wont make a way.
Theres nothing you can say or do
that will take away my faith,
ever since I tried the Lord,
theres been nothing that can take His place.

Chorus:

I know too much about Him,
and theres nothing to make me doubt Him.
Just as sure as I have life,
you cant change my mind,
you cant tell me nothing,
I know God for myself.

Verse 2:

You cant tell me that a baby doesnt cry,
You cant tell me that June isnt before July.
Theres nothing you can say or do
that will change my reality, ever since I tried the Lord, I know Hes always with me.

You cant tell me that He wont step in and rescue me,
You cant tell me that He didnt die to set me free.
Dont try convincing me that God isn't everything I need, Hes faithful when others are not,
Hes a surest friend Ive got.

Chorus

Bridge:

Hes proven Himself to be faithful unto me,
if Id never had any trials,
who knows where I would be.
