Smoking Popes, Rubella

I'm inflamed with desire and its spreading like wildfire She doesn't know it but she'll soon be mine Its just a question of time Rubella

I'm insanely obsessed and I simply will not rest She doesn't know it yet but she's the one And I won't stop until I'm done Rubella

And the heart that she has stolen has swollen twice its natural size I've lost six pounds since I laid eyes on her Rubella

I'm in love with a girl she's affected my whole world She doesn't know it but she's inside me And now I'm gone completely Rubella

She explodes like a fist and she burns from the first kiss I haven't told her but she's all mine now I knew some how I'd catch her Rubella, Rubella, Rubella [repeat until end of song]
