

Smooosh, La Pump

Time is up
Waiting for the arrival of you to come
When you tell me to
But you're late and, guess what?
I'm not surprised at all

I would give everything
Just to feel my heart isn't breaking just for you
Cause when you call again
Gonna go on to say
Never leavin' it just for me

When you go
Never gonna go on

Time is up
Never gonna go right now
When you say, though that you don't know

Time is up
Waiting for the arrival of you to come
When you tell me to
But you're late and, guess what?
I'm not surprised at

I would give everything
Just to feel my heart isn't breaking just for you
Cause when you call again
Gonna go on to say
Never leaving it just to me

I would bring enough now
Cause you want what you don't have
Time is up
Waiting for the arrival of you to come
When you tell me to
But you're late and, guess what?
I'm not surprised at all

Time is up
My sensibilities
I'm trying harder
And it's getting a little annoying
And when you're gonna let me go
You're gonna let me know
You're gonna never feel alright

I would give everything
Just to feel my heart isn't breaking just for you
Cause when you call again
Gonna go on to sway
Never leaving it just for me

Cause when you never live
You're gonna never go
You're gonna never feel alright
Cause you will never go
I hope you never know I'll leave
You're never gonna live
Goodbye
