

SMÜGY, What Do I Know About Love

I know I've been chasing the wind so many times
I know I've been messing things up right from the start, now I'm guarded
If I'm gonna give up myself to be someone for somebody next time I want to do it right

I know I've been falling for you
I saw my dreams in your eyes
But dreams are not lovers with the truth

What do I know about love?
A broken heart without a clue
How do i know if I love
I love
I love you?

I've been worse, I've been better, I try to keep on track
Nihilism and decadence are my faith, my path and my power
I've lost, I keep losing the game of love, this time I won't bother
Cause now for me baby, I'm the one

I know I've been falling for you
I saw my dreams in your eyes
But dreams are not lovers with the truth

What do I know about love?
A broken heart without a clue
How do i know if I love
I love
I love you?

Love is a drug, lust, feeling
This word has lost its meaning
But no one wants to be alone
How after all this grieving for Lost chances, dreams, illusions
How after all this bleeding
Can I believe in you
And you believe in me?
