Snake River Conspiracy, Casualty

And it stretches out again And it seems I didn't win I think I'll rest a while So nice here on the tiles The lights come washing in I see you there over me Shining your new trophy

I'm a casualty of you
Just a casualty of you
Opportunity for me to prove again how easily you just
Want you to stay with me
More than would die to be, your casualty

Your cast is setting well At least I lived to tell All the future casualties The line starts after me

I'm a casualty of you
Just a casualty of you
Opportunity for me to prove again how easily you just
Want you to stay with me
More than would die to be, your casualty

You turn me on
You turn me on and on and on and on and on...
You turn me on
You turn me on and on and on and on and on...
You turn me on
Yeah you turn me, mmm you turn me
