

Snake River Conspiracy, Coke And Vaseline

Kansas city blues messing up your head knotted on the bird wishing i was dead
shit is only shit running through your brains I'm not the one who lies I'm not the one who dies feels so empty I'm alright situation's fine (alright alright alright)

shoot your final rounds mariachi flames grafitti demon god praise the great machine the only things we need cocaine and vaseline
I'm not the one who lies
I'm not the one dies

feels so empty I'm alright
situation's fine (alright alright alright)
feels so empty I'm alright
situation's fine (alright alright alright...)

the christ you thought was dead nazi figure head the heart that we all need holds piss and gasoline
I'm not the one who lies
I'm not the one who dies

situation's fine (alright alright alright)

alright alright alright....
