

Snapcase, Looking Glass Self

alone, all by myself in fear of failure unable to see who I am
who's my savior
and I don't know why why I've come here to the place of condemnation my existence remains unclear but I have broken through through what enslaved me abolish your guilt wall realization allowed me to be free and my self confidence has taught me virtues your power was my weakness my weakness was your power me - do they need me
you - do I need you
me - do they need me
you - do I need you
