

Sneaker Pimps, Unattach

Unattach to now
Long to be so uninvolved
Try to want to know
How to fall and what's been shown

Reserve the right to never tell
Silence tells you more

I can take the rest down
I can take the rest down

Hang opinion round
Hopes ballooning as we wait
Never standing ground
Making moves to compensate

I can't wait to see you try
Suits me when you fail

I can take the rest down
I can take the rest down

Try so hard to plan a route
Of some escape from algebra
Lost, confess no claim to truth
Limit me to something more

Reserve the right to never tell
Silence tells you more

'Cause I can take the rest down
'Cause I can take the rest down

I can take the rest down
I can take the rest down
