

Snitch, Just Wait

close the door
bring your faith
take my hand
and give me
one last chance to say sorry for those times i made you cry sorry for the thousand times i lied last time we went to canada and i missed your birthday didn't call i'm sorry about that girl all those endless sleepless nights you spent all alone and wondering where i am where i am and why i know you're the only one who would do this for me believe in me and you know i'm really gonna try i'm trying

just wait and bring your faith for one last time and i swear i'll make you mine don't hang the phone up like last time last year when we split up for just six months maybe i had to realise needed time i know that i really want you cannot be without you for just one day

i need you to feed me with your temptation your frustration and you know i'm really trying hold on to what we've got and forget what i said it was never meant that way
