

Snog, Christmas Everyday

The snow falls gently to the ground
Under the tree, gifts scattered all around
That special day that comes but once a year
All your dreams come true right here

Oh, it's Christmas everyday
Christmas everyday
For those freaks in the White House

Dick Cheney's in Halliburton heaven
Since September Eleven
There's carnage and cash on tap
From Afghanistan and Iraq

A cornucopia
Of gangster dystopia

The aroma of roasted Iraqi children
Creates a joy seldom hidden
Seldom hidden
Seldom hidden

And it's Christmas everyday
Christmas everyday
For those bloodthirsty freaks
In the White House

Oh, it's Christmas everyday
Christmas everyday
For those murdering freaks
In the White House

Unwrap that delightful cluster bomb
Hundreds of splinters fall all around
They rip and shred that tender brown flesh
Oh, it's just too delicious
And it's all smiles in the White House

Oh, it's Christmas everyday
Christmas everyday
For those murdering freaks
In the White House

Oh, it's Christmas everyday
Christmas everyday
For those bloodthirsty freaks
In the White House

Now you may think it's all too suspicious
That some invisible dude in a cave could create such happiness
But where there's a will, some neocons and oil
No amount of carnage is too much trouble or toil
And don't dare cry conspiracy
It's just Christmas, you see

Oh, it's Christmas everyday
Christmas everyday
For those bloodthirsty freaks
In the White House

Oh, it's Christmas everyday
Christmas everyday
For those murdering freaks
In the White House
