

Snooky Pryor, Mind Your Own Business

(Harmonica Intro)

You oughta mind your own business, leave other people alone
You oughta mind your own business, leave other people alone
You got six months to run your business, six months to leave mine alone

Yeah you talk about sal, you talk about sue
But you don't tell no one, bout them things you do
You oughta mind your own business, leave other people alone
You got six months to run your business, six months to leave mine alone

(Harmonica Solo)

You ought to be somewhere, on your knees tryin to pray
But you just run your big mouth, you don't care what you say
Why can't you mind your business, leave other people alone
You got six months to run your business, six months to leave mine alone

I know my dog, anywhere I hear her bark
I know my little woman, from feelin' her in the dark
Why can't you mind your business, leave other people alone
You got six months to run your business, six months to leave mine alone

(Harmonica Solo)

(woah I got to get away from him!)

Why can't you mind your business, leave other people alone
You oughta mind your own business, leave other people alone
You got six months to run your business, six months to leave mine alone
(Let's get outta here, let's get outta here!)

(Harmonica Solo)
