And call a time-out

before you put your dime out.

Stop, pause, rewind, before you put your rhyme out.

And go to the Wizard of Oz

to tell him that u r tryin to get yourself a brand new heart

A brand new start

cause you realized you had never played your part
and that was smart.
It's like a art the way I ar-tic-ulate
And break these bitches from state to state.
See, I've been the flyest since I came out the gate
I ain't ask for it homie I just shake n bake.

I say a prayer to my Lord just to keep my faith
