

Snot, Starlit Eyes

Starlit Eyes

(Lyrics: Serj of System of a Down)

Pushing the law again

Pushing the law again

Justice with a sword

Our smiling knight on board

Opening his heart to everyone

And loving without a doubt

Embracing friends and

Embarrasing foes,

And those who are unjust.

A man true to his heart

without fear or misgivings

With "insecurity" tattooed across his body

The first to accept, the last to dissappoint

He understood all and expected nothing

Now you are free

Free to roam the skies

Now and then visit me

With your starlit eyes

You took all our hearts

With your smile,

And left a legacy untold

You conquered life and fear,

So you see there was no room for you to grow old
