

Snow Patrol feat. Martha Wainwright, Raze The C

Here i come through the west wing of your house slay the butler by the door plan my attack for weeks and weeks some mad thinking going on here grab your smile and from the bed as we head down to the town here we come through the city streets at night causing mayhem as we go never letting go of hands your eyes burnt and..... steal a car and drive away your eyes never leave the burning city
