

Snow Patrol, Time Won't Go Slowly

time won't go slowly though I beg it to last I just wanna be here with you that's all I ask and this could be the end of everything outside our walls an empires could fall away and cities razed I know I'd only wanna fall in love with you only wanna fall in love with you

always so fast you are the answer every question I've asked
