

Snowpony, Snow White

Snow White I think of you
Beneath the strip lights turning blue
Snow White your heart so pure
Perhaps you'd better lock your door
I think of you in the dreamless night
Snow White, Snow White

Can see her now crawl across the floor
I said "Are you sure? Are you sure? Are you sure?"
Snow White, sleep well tonight

Snow White, she lies in bed
Left her fingerprints inside my head
Left her footprints inside my heart
Snow White, sleep well tonight

Snow White, I think of you
Your tears like rain on the temple roof
Your tattoos fading now from black and blue
In the morning light you're nothing new, you're nothing new

Snow White, your dress unstained
Your hair all wet in the straight down rain
And when you smile like a mail order bride
Something flips and twists inside
I think of you, Snow White

I think of you [3x]
In the dreamless night
Snow White, Snow White
