

Snuff, I See / H.M. Trout

There's a part of you still haunting me
A part I could never let go
A Valentine's Kiss - softened voice on the telephone
Calling me home to what

I SEE I NEED (breakfast)

There's a part of me still left with you
A part I could never return
The fabric's worn and getting on
But somehow it keeps me warm for a while

I SEE I NEED (elevenses)
