

So Weird, More Like A River

There's a motel in Texas hard bend on the wide blue sky, had a dream there the morning came to soon I rolled over, an' I said it out loud said, Give me one more moment just one more moment to finish this dream

I wanna be more like a river less like a wall, not trying to hold back these feelings at all
'Cause when I miss you, when I'm dying to kiss you
I gotta let that flow ohh, more like a river

There's a house in the mountains, filled w/ bits of me & you
I had a dream there, the morning came to soon

I've been holding on, it's been holding me back I don't wanna give in but I know what you'd say to me, Finish this dream

Can I be more like a river
less like a wall, not trying to hold back these feelings at all
'Cause when I miss you, when I'm dying to kiss you
I gotta let that flow ohh, more like a river

'Cause in the morning, there are kids and dogs and bills, and sunlight
An' a new day, an' a new day, and another new day Without you
