

Soap&Skin, Fall Foliage

"You made me smile with my heart"
You made me beg for admission cards
You will never stay
In my home on my way
Forlorn from today

We have nothing more to share
Only air, that old breath
All I pare off to a road
As my goad into my grave

One sear scratch is lying in the door
Falling on the floor
All fleet snatch is laying waste my gore
It will drop down on the floor

You will never stay in my home, on my way
Forlorn from today
We'll never find us again
