

Social Burn, Beautiful

Can't you see that the damage is done,
I'm wiped away, nothing to say,
You just set me free to start again,
Where's my friends? I can't contend.
I must be wrong, please check again.
Just take my hand,

And kill this pain in my soul.
Don't wanna feel anymore,
I lost a lot on my own.
Cause you are so beautiful,
You're so helpless and pure.
I lost a lot on my own,
On my own.

Can't you see that the damage is done,
You're wiped away, nothing to say,
Cause I just set you free to start again,
Where's your friends? You can't contend.
I must be wrong, please check again.
Just take my hand,

And kill this pain in my soul.
Don't wanna feel anymore,
I lost a lot on my own.
Cause you are so beautiful,
You're so helpless and pure.
I lost a lot on my own,
On my own.

I can't contend, You must be wrong,
Please check again, just take my hand.
I can't contend, You must be wrong,
