

Social Burn, One More Day

Warm sunshine on my face
I hear the crashing of the waves
I really came here to hide
To try and escape the pain inside

As the tears roll down
Yeah the tears roll down

I swear I've made up my mind
I'll take you back just one more time
Oh no, You hurt me again
You said you would change again my friend

But the tears roll down
Yeah the tears roll down

I swore I'd never come to this
One more day I could've missed
Warm sunshine on my face
Can you hear the crashing of the waves

As the tears roll down
Yeah the tears roll down
As the tears roll down
Yeah the tear rolls down
As the tears...roll...down
