

Social Distortion, No Pain, No Gain

Mike Ness)

Through some pain today
Well I walked

Well I guess today was my turn to hurt
Man I walked
Well, why not
You know I'm not any different
And no pain means no gain

Well I used to think that life
I've heard them say
Live fast, die young
Was so ugly
Leave a pretty corpse

But now I see things so much different

-----And life seems sometimes pretty to me
