

Social Siberia, 17

At 17 you're a broken dream
Feeding on the lies you were told as a child and your sanity's based on Prozac and your face has been worn out

Hell, I was there too
You were the one who got it sexy done
Hell, I was there too
So say it like you mean it, do it as it concerns you.

Finding truth, finding truth in the things that we've found
This could be time for us to burn the world and kiss it goodbye
Give me some time and I will waste it all on, waste it all on somebody else

At 23 you'll be your biggest fear, feeding your kids the lies you were told as a child and your sanity's based on Prozac and
---your face has been worn out
your face has been worn out

'Cause I was there too, you were the one who got it sexy done.
Yeah I was there too
Say it like you mean it
Do it as it concerns you

Finding truth, finding truth in the things that we've found
This could be time for us to burn the world and kiss it goodbye
Give me some time and I will waste it all on, waste it all on somebody else. (Waste it all on somebody else.)
Give me some time and I will waste it all on, waste it all on somebody else.
