

Socialburn, One More Day

Warm sunshine on my face
I hear the crashing of the waves
I really came here to hide
To try and escape the pain inside

[Chorus]
But the tears roll down
Swore I'd never come to this
Yeah the tears roll down
Swore I'd never come to this

I swear I've made up my mind
I'll take you back just one more time
Oh no, you've hurt me again
You said that you would change again my friend

[Chorus]
[Lead break]

Swore I'd never come to this
One more day I could have missed
The warm sunshine on my face
Can you hear the crashing of the waves

[Chorus extended]
