

Socialburn, Speak Now

speak now or forever hold your peace life's too short so would you walk with me you're too scared to now or forever hold your arms around me i can see the sun but it's fading out it's fading out it's fading out (chorus)
when you swore that you would change so what happens now is what happens now and i swore i'd rearrange and make time for us have we lost mouth is dry my bodies numb your too scared to say what you need from me when i need you to stay sun but it's fading out its fading out its fading out (chorus)
