

Sofa, No matter

REF: No matter what you say this time around,
I must take a stand while I can - I can.

1.

So much pressure's on your side - how 'bout my point of view?

You never asked me even once...

How can you be so sure of me
maybe I can turn my back on you.

I'm not afraid to speak for myself - will you please say no more?

REF: No matter...

My words miss your ears 'coz
you don't hear much more than your own precious voice.

Why should I still try to make you see my long gone faith - tell me why?

REF: No matter...
