

Sofia Loell, The Only One

You know the moment when you're just to wake but a part of you is still asleep and your dreams are open to give and take then love has caught you wide and deep saying feel my hunger - I'm your destiny if you can face my wonders - then your dreams are meant to be

Like the sun will rise and fall again I wanna be the only one like we give and take and give again
I wanna be the only one

Like the tickle of a whispered dream in my ear your sweetest fantasy became a reason to believe that love is calling saying feel my hunger - I'm your destiny

like the sun...

through rain and shine and days and nights I dare the world so come what might there's nothing out there strong enough to break this dream apart I'm gonna be the only one

Lovers have no lovers rules no easy roads to go and loving makes us lovers fools but I see what they know

like the sun...
