

Sofia Loell, Too Much

I need for you to notice me, I need for you to see I need for you to open up, you need to let me in that is what I'm waiting for, that is all I want but I need to hold my horses, I need to slow down

I wish for you to hold my hand, I wish for you to care
I wish for you to be my man to always be there that is what I'm hoping for, that is all I want
but I need to hold my horses, I need to slow down

Cause I want too much - too fast (x3)
but I need to hold my horses, I need to slow down

I want you to feel that I'm here inside want you to now that your world is mine but if you think I move too fast I'll wait for you - I'll slow it down

Oh I'd like to be the reason for you to carry on I'd like to be your good times and I'd like to be the one that is what I'm hoping for, that is all I want
But I need to hold my horses, I need to slow down
