

Sofia Loell, Will You Move On (Heavens Not Enough)

I drifted along
I was one among
Many other treasure seekers wishing for good luck
But all I found
In dreamers land
Was shadows of a long lost time that once had been around
Cause heaven's only here when I am near you
That's the reason baby why I fear you

Will you move on
Will you forgive me for
Loving myself more than you
Will you go on
Will you forgive me
For giving up on us two
Heaven is not enough for me
I need to find what is true without you
By my side

I'm falling apart
But it's all a start
Of a brand new day, a chance to play the message of my heart
If I turn back
I will self-destruct
My path is not the same as yours
You have to understand
Cause heaven's only here when I am near you
That's the reason baby why I fear you
