

Softcore, Just To You

How different would it be
For the peace of my broken heart
If you would have been a little more honest
With this strong feeling given by me
And Im asking why
Im not feeling hate about you
Maybe the only think that I know
Is loving, loving just to you
Its a sad sunset
Getting darker the affection given by me
But Im really sure the sun is going to rise
And will give some life to my broken heart
And Im asking why
I dont feel hate about you
Maybe the only think that I know
Is loving, loving just to you
