

Softcore, Tears And Smiles

t anyway I have to apologize
For all those details
They just help hurt you
Tears come out from your eyes
Ive got an idea
Why dont you come
We can sing
So many funny catchy songs
To forget about the past
Is what I want to make you happy
I never meant to hurt you
I think Im a little careless
At least I realize
Thank you for make me understand
The day is only beginning
And now I can see your smile
Sometimes I start thinking
What would happen to me
If you are not here
I wouldnt have a soul
I wouldnt have mind
I wouldnt have life
To make this catchy song
