

Soho Dolls, Right And Right Again (Radio Edit)

I like Mondays now
Had the time around
My dawn your sunsets beating down
I like Mondays now
Your weak and weeded out
Flat of the land you burning out

If you wanna stay
If you wanna stay

Wake up
You're losing ground
Wake up
You're gagged and bound
Wake up
We'll turn things round
Wake up

Know you can do better
If we pull together
Do you think I'm clever
Do you

If you hold your rank
You'll have me to thank
And you break new rules go spread the rules
I know i can be forward
In a way too awkward
If i can't convince i will confuse

If you wanna stay
Gonna have to come to bed

Wake up
You're losing ground
Wake up
You're gagged and bound
Wake up
We'll turn things round
Wake up

Know you can do better
If we pull together
Do you think im clever
Do you

Wake up
You're losing ground
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up

Know you can do better
If we pull together
