

Solange, I Decided

Oooh

[spoken:]

Can't hear myself
Can you please turn me up a little bit more

I was a little different
I didnt do what the fast girls do
Study my rhythm
You can speed me up when you want to Oooh-oh

They were too cool to run the race
You kept the pace put the smile on your face
Go 'head baby (Go 'head baby)
Then I knew he was you (Then I know he was you)
But first you took me around introduced me to your family friends
And told them all once we met that we would never lose
Oh Boy

I Decided
That you are the him for me
(I Decided)
Oh Boy
Cuz I decided
That you are the him for me
(yes you are)
Oh My Boy

How'd it feel to win it?
When aint no mountains that you can't move

Your mind is like a Prism
For God's light to shine through
Oooh-oo

They were too cool to run the race (yeaa)
You kept the pace put the smile on your face
Go 'head baby (yeaa) (Go 'head baby)
Then I knew he was you (Then I know he was you)
But first you took me around introduced me to your family friends
And told them all once we met that we would never lose (never lose, never lose)
Oh Boy

I Decided
That you are the him for me
Oh Boy
Cuz I decided (I Decided)
That you are the him for me (You are the one for me baby yeah)
Oh My Boy (oh boy)

Running me runnin me down(down)
Tellin me tell me you'll wait
Runnin me down and telling me you'll wait
Never gonna let go
It's the way you got me (it's the way you got me when you got me baby. ohh now you got me baby)

Running me runnin me down (runnin)
Tellin me tell me you'll wait (tellin me tell me you'll wai-heee)
Runnin me down telling me you'll wait
Never gonna let go
It's the way you got me
