Solange, I Told You So

I know you hate that I think this way I know you think that it's wrong of me I know that everything is strong today But the longer we go I know the fire will start to fade I'm maybe walking to long for this race I know you said that you won't do the same And so I'm writing this song so the day See I'm right I'm play this record with a smirk While I say I told you so (4x) I know you hate that I think this way I could be wrong but the chances ain't great I know calls your sweet message Will turn lately just to make me smile To quite necessary I know your vision your eye just see me But somehow time seem to make it blurry And so I'm writing this song so the day I see I'm right, I'll play this record While I cry and I say [I Told You So Lyrics on http://www.elyricsworld.com/] I told you so (4x) I know the newest of it all Seems right but baby I'm no fool And I got pride that happily ever Love should just last a while. I know you think you love me But love ain't never stopped nobody From creeping around every once in a while When things start to settle down And so I won't look like a clown I' m a call it now I told you so (4x) I told you so (4x)
